

Napier Store Scoops Top Award for Domino's

Napier residents know and love their pizza just as much as anyone else – and now its official!

Domino's Pizza Australia and New Zealand Rally Awards 2011 have named Chris Wood as Franchise Manager of the Year, surpassing all other New Zealand and Australian competition for the prestigious award.

Wood took home the Franchise Manager of the Year award in recognition of his hard work and professional pizza prowess at the Napier City and Hastings Domino's Pizza stores, where he is a minor shareholder.

The Franchise Manager of the Year award is given to the franchise manager who performed best in Australia and New Zealand over a 12 month period.

Franchise Manager of the Year award winner Chris Wood says he was delighted to receive the accolade from Domino's.

"I am passionate about Domino's and the product that we bring to our customers every day, so I was thrilled to be rewarded for my dedication to the Napier City and Hastings Domino's Pizza stores," says Wood.

Domino's Chief Executive Officer, Don Meij, says the Napier City and Hastings stores worked extremely efficiently thanks to Wood's dedication and exceptional management skills.

“The Napier stores are some of the very best stores operationally in Australia and New Zealand alike and Wood’s award is testament to this,” says Meij.

The Rally, which was held in Brisbane in July, celebrates the efforts of Domino’s employees, bolstering team morale and rewarding success by recognising team members who consistently reach extraordinary sales and operational performance while also motivating others to reach the same level.
