

Waikato Gets a Slice of the Action at Domino's Awards

Passion for pizza is all it takes to get a slice of the action – just ask the Hamilton rookie who's taken out top honours for Domino's!

Domino's Pizza Australia and New Zealand Rally Awards 2011 have named Alan Gu as Franchise Rookie Manager of the Year, beating out the competition in both New Zealand and Australia to scoop the award.

Gu took home the Franchise Rookie Manager of the Year award in recognition of his high calibre performance at the Domino's Rototuna store in Hamilton.

The Franchise Rookie Manager of the Year award is given to the franchise rookie manager who performed best in Australia and New Zealand over a 12 month period.

Franchise Rookie Manager of the Year award winner, Alan Gu, says he was thrilled to be honoured for his hard work and commitment to the Domino's Rototuna store.

"I love going to work every day – so to be rewarded for this just makes me want to work even harder!" says Gu.

Domino's Chief Executive Officer, Don Meij, says the Rototuna Domino's in Hamilton is a progressive store that shows a lot of promise.

"The Franchise Rookie Manager of the Year award is all about celebrating and promoting new talent and we are delighted with Alan's performance and the way he has embraced the Domino's values," says Meij.
